Spring has sprung, and the grass is growing. Hopefully the weather will cheer up as the summer months approach .

WHERE TO NEXT

After the recent disappointment of missing our funding target, we are taking stock. However, the vision of the Wellness and Education Centre as Stage 1, still stands strong. We may not have a confirmed location but, collectively. We need to raise the funds so we can build once we do.

Our initial trustees are Dr Kate Armstrong, Bronwyn Blair, Frederick Church and Jo Herbert. The new Trust has formal plans to involve more stakeholder representatives as trustees in the future.

COME AND MEET US

Project team members will be attending a number of community events over the coming months, including the Colville Market Day and Tangiaro Spring Festival. Please come see us and share your thoughts.

Look out for further dates and events on the website

EPIC WORKING BEES

Spring has been busy in the nursery with many hands making light work filling bags with soil to raise our seedlings. A big "Thank-You" to everyone who has volunteered their time to help out and be part of the fun! We couldn't do it without you. A big "Thanks" also to Hereford n' a Pickle for the wonderful catering. Our final nursery spring working bee is planned for Saturday 27 October, 10am-2pm- love to see you there.

COLVILLE BAY NEWS- 297 CHC TRAPS IN ACTION

You might have spotted our CHC trap boxes around Colville Bay, after all there are a lot of them! A total of 132 rats and 435 mice have been caught since the beginning of the pest management project with a large number of mice being caught and tracked in the coastal wetland and grassland. Mice eat insects, lizards and bird eggs. They also eat plant seeds which reduces food available for birds and can slow reproduction of native coastal grasses and sea meadow. Using the upright double bar traps, which catch both rats and mice, has proven to be a good strategy for targeting both species at once.

KŌWHAI WELCOMES SPRING

The distinctive burst of yellow, and the flurry of tui in the branches. Kōwhai. There are 8 species of kōwhai, most often found beside streams or on the edges of the forest. The one native to Colville is Sophora microphylla or small leaved kōwhai. The nectar is a favourite for tui, korimako (bellbird), kākā and kererū.

Interested in growing kōwhai to help the Colville Harbour Care project?

We can help with seed collection, supply potting mix, trays and pots, and give advice on germination and transplanting. Please contact Beth. (details below).

Dear Colville Music Club and Colville Harbour Care,

We would like to thank you for giving us the opportunity to raise funds towards our 2019 World Challenge trip. Because of your generosity we have been able to raise a large sum towards our goal and are now one step closer to making this trip a reality.

Yours Sincerely,

Hello everyone,

We had our AGM this month and it brought a change to our Board of Trustees. Aimee Bearda has stepped down and Robyn Vinten from Tuatēawa has joined. Aimee will continue to provide website support, and for this and for her service as a Trustee, we are very grateful.

September is a month of planning for October's fundraisers. This year we will have a table at the Colville Market on Labour Weekend Saturday and have a stall and raffles and collect the Gold Coin Entry at Tangiaro Spring Festival on Sunday, the same weekend. A busy one for the Trust!

To help us make the most of these opportunities we need to refresh our supply of items for market sales and items for the raffles. If anyone has anything they would like to donate, please contact the Trust at 07 866 6618, or drop in any time.

Enjoy that spring sunshine!

Hot News from Colville Brigade

The 2018 AGM saw new Fire Chief Barry(Bazza) Ross appointed. Justin Ward was thanked for his management and guidance as Fire Chief through the hectic transitional time of moving into the FENZ (Fire and Emergency New Zealand) operational system.

We had a busy time over the New Year and holiday period and then things really slowed down (thank goodness)! We intend stepping up our training with the secured mentorship of Les Ward whose experience as former Colville Fire Chief for many years is invaluable to our future success.

FENZ intends to be active in community 'fire and emergency prevention' highlighting the four 'R's - Reduction, Readiness, Response, and Recovery'. This is the main focus of our area (Region 2 - Waikato) fires have only been 20% of the call outs in the last year. A lot of our responses have been to assist 'medical professionals'. We are moving into a new environment focusing on communication with our Northern Coromandel community including our partner Brigades, Port Charles and Kennedy Bay.

Active Community awareness goes a long way to prevention and preparedness - any questions - regarding: floods; sandbagging; fire permits; smoke alarms; extinguishers; debris removal please let us know - Fire Chief Bazza 021 0858 4243.

It is encouraging to see so many new members - Bazza is eager that we get practical active training experience before the 'peak' summertime season and he plans to include Karuna Falls, Little Bay, Tuatēawa, in training exercises.

We are keen to have fire practice on any piles of debris that you would like gone!

Kia ora koutou

We have heard the first pipi wharau (shining cuckoo) calling in the bush, so its official from nature, that Spring is here. Something great to do as you drive our country roads is to count the puawananga or bush clematis which is out in vivid white clusters right now.

Just letting you know Dr Kate is away the first two weeks of October. We will have our wonderful locum Sue Greig in the clinic over that time. We will also have Freya, our final 6th year student for 2018 with us till the end of October.

We plan to have two 4th year students coming before the end of the year too – an important placement for them as it can be their first exposure to rural practice New Zealand.

Once again we are encouraging our registered patients to link in with Manage My Health which is the patient portal which gives you access to your medical record. This allows you to see your notes, test results, make appointments and request repeat prescriptions on line. To be honest, having our registered patients using Manage My Health is a real help to the clinic as it can save a lot of time, but it also gives people a chance to 'manage' their own health. All it requires is for you to have your own email address. The reception team are pretty slick at getting it sorted at the clinic and once home or when using your own mobile device, you simply need to log in using the temporary password provided when you sign up, reset your password and 'hey presto' you are in! We are striving to have at least 40% of our patients using this, over the next while.

We have had a couple of people upset lately because they have been asked to come to the clinic rather than simply get a repeat prescription via a phone call. There are regulations in place that require our clinical staff to see people within certain timeframes, depending on what medication they are taking. We have been tightening up on this lately and urge our patients to understand that we have to see them in order to continue prescribing some medications. While on the topic of medication, if you have been to see a specialist or you have had your medication altered please alert us when you next visit as sometimes we are not kept up to date with your medicine changes. This will certainly help us to keep you well, by ensuring you are on the right medications.

Enjoy the warmer days,

The team at Colville Community Health Centre

WRITE NOW - Northern Coromandel.

Kicking off on Sunday October 14th, 2-4pm, at Karuna Falls Community House. WRITE NOW aims to be a writing support group for people currently working on writing projects - at whatever stage. We'll meet up, catchup and WRITE NOW for one hour, followed by afternoon tea/coffee. So if you are working in isolation, come along for some writerly conversations and encouragement. The venue may move around the district.

Stephanie Parkyn (Little Bay) and Steph McKee (Karuna Falls) decided to kick this off. Steph Parkyn has published "Into the World", a historical novel based on the true story of a French woman disguised as a man on a French exploration ship sailing around the Pacific at the time of the French Revolution. A compelling story! See: Steph McKee has self-published 2 poetry collections and is working on an environmental memoir/creative non-fiction called "Reckless - Pokerenoa". Other local writers we know about are working on screenplays, historical novels, poetry, short stories. We don't plan to do "writing exercises" to share, as the exercise of moving forward with our projects is enough! Join the Facebook Group: Write Now: Northern Coromandel

Coromandel Town News

Boom, Bust & Beyond Guided Heritage Tours have certainly featured in the media over the last few weeks following our launch on 31 August. We are currently operating tours on a Saturday morning at 11.30am, although tours are available at other times by arrangement. The walking tour of town starts at the Information Centre and takes 1 to 1.5 hours.

Thinking of what to give as a birthday or Christmas present? How about a Boom, Bust & Beyond gift voucher? Yes, that's right -- something a little different and perfect for someone who enjoys history, who loves Coromandel Town, or who you don't know what to get. The cost is $10 per person. They can be for an individual or a group of people. Give us a call or email (details at the bottom of the article).

Saturday 15 September we had a good turnout for the Pick It Up Now event, which was part of World Cleanup Day. I would like to thank all those who participated: mums, dads, children and tourists! Between them they collected eight bags of rubbish from Jacks Point to Hauraki Reserve. Amazing what people leave or throw away. There are many bins in and around town and there is a recycling station at the Refuse Centre on Hauraki Road, so no excuses to trash our lovely town. I have also noticed that there are a few proactive people who instinctively pick up rubbish when they see it along their walks. InterCity service which departs Coromandel at 11.17am will resume Saturday service on 6 October. At present it is Sunday through Friday.

360 Ferry resumes their Friday Auckland/Coromandel service on 19 October. The Tuesday and Thursday services resume 23 October when the ferry will then be operating five days a week. Bookings can be made at the Centre.

Along with the longer days and warmer weather we start to get out and explore a bit more. Just a note to remind you that we have over 11 walks in and around and far north of town. Pop in and see us to get a map or purchase a copy of the beautiful Colville Trail Cards.

We also have for sale four unique greeting cards depicting some of our iconic buildings: Samuel James Reserve, Meat Keeper and Star and Garter Hotel. They are $2.50 per card and great as birthday or Christmas cards, especially if you are sending them overseas.

We love to help out our local community groups by promoting your activities, events, fundraisers and such. Do contact me if you would like us to help spread the word via radio and internet.

Until next time, take care.

MEG Operations

Our field team have been busy over the last few weeks re-cutting and marking the tracks used to access the lines within our Rat Attack Project at Port Charles, replacing older traps and boxes as required. The weather has made this process slightly challenging and has put us behind schedule by a couple of weeks. Things are moving along nicely now though and as this goes to print the team have so far upgraded 38 km of track and replaced 100 traps. The traps are set out in 50m x 25m grids over a 350 hectare area. The work in the Rat Attack project is done to coincide with our native birds breeding season, giving their off-spring the best chance of survival.

October is Save Kiwi Month!

We have a few things in the planning stage for Save Kiwi Month, make sure to keep an eye on our Facebook page to see what events we will be holding.

Waiau Hawk & Morepork Sanctuary - Opinion piece

The kiwi can be protected without the use of poisons. A number of enviro-groups have demonstrated that, with a lot of hard work, considerable know-how, local knowledge, enterprise and genuine purpose, kiwi numbers can be effectively protected without the use of persistent animal poisons.

Unfortunately their work is largely over-looked and the enviro-groups which are spreading animal poisons are getting all the publicity.

The groups spreading poisons are spoiling things for everybody else.

They tell us regularly how many rats and cats, stoats and weasels, mice and hedgehogs, rabbits and even ferrets they have trapped, thousands of them, and yet they never seem to trap any possums. It makes no sense. All this trapping and no mention of how many possums they have poisoned. It is uncomfortable living in an area or catching an animal which might be poisoned. The poisoning attitude which prevails in these enviro-groups is causing a split in a community which has been here since the place was genuinely clean and green and want that cleanness back.
