HIMALAYA SHOP

Hello there!,
HAPPY NEW YEAR. We will be OPEN every day in January from 10 am to 5pm.

Cheers Rob & Anette ph 07 866 6865

It's finally Summer and we hope everyone has some fun in the sun and that it's a good season for Colville.

5-21 of January is a Lam Rim retreat, which are step-by-step instructions how to develop wisdom and compassion leading to enlightenment. It runs for 2 weeks but also has 3-day cycles that people can join in.

You won't want to miss the 16 Guidelines Workshop 27-28 January. This event is universal, so not just for Buddhists. It looks at how we can't control everything that happens to us, but we can change how we view and react so that we have a happier mind and better relationships. We introduced this programme to parents over a year ago, and it was met with enthusiasm, so please join us for the workshop.

31 Jan is Blessings at Waitete Beach. From 10-3 we'll have a variety of activities including meditation, painting rocks, animal blessing, and a picnic. Free and drop in anytime. For events in February visit our website for more information.

We encourage members of the local community to come to our courses and retreats, so offer them to you on a donation basis to make them accessible to all.

Pre-registration is still essential – contact us at retreat@mahamudra.org.nz or 866 6851
2183 Colville Road
www.mahamudra.org.nz

Back Room Gallery

Thank you to the community for turning out for and supporting our grand opening in December. We received lots of feedback that the gallery looks lovely and has quality art from our local artists.

We're open daily through the Summer from 10am – 4pm and hope we'll see lots more visitors in January. Look out for us behind the Colville Cafe.

MEG's Summer Holiday Programme bookings are open , make sure you don't leave it too late get take a place on any of the varied activities. Visit our web site and follow the link to see the full activity calendar www.meg.org.nz

Its time when many visitors bring their dogs into the area ...please encourage people to have their dogs under control at all times. Check out the Summer Program for Kiwi Dog Aversion Training locations and Teach you Dog new Tricks teaching dogs to recall from birds and improve control in open areas.

It's the time for weeds to flower and spread.....can you identify kahili ginger, climbing asparagus, moth plant, woollie nightshade , pampas, wilding pines...what is there in you backyard? or along the road when you take a walk...you can help grow by controlling these nasties close to home.

Many of us are enjoying spectacular morning bird song . MEG thanks all those that are making a difference, the volunteers and workers that put in endless effort, the landowners who work with us and support our efforts, the other groups and initiatives that help build the significant song that can be heard in daylight hours as well and helping bring our nocturnal forests alive.

MEG's Waikawau Campground shop will be open again this year for the 6 weeks from Christmas.
Best wishes for the New Year.

SENIOR SERVICES.

Senior Net: At the last Senior Net meeting for 2017 there was support for the continuation of the group for 2018. Loes from Senior Net Coromandel, of which Colville is a branch, attended and bought the latest news from Senior Net NZ. We will resume meetings at 10am on Wednesday 14th February at Colville Café. Big Thank you's to Nathan who has offered great help to those attending in sorting out the vagaries of their various devices.

Colville Kai Box: We provide five residents in our area with five meals each, one fresh and the rest frozen, delivered by the rural delivery as a trail for meals delivered to residents homes. The trailists provided excellent feedback via the form provided. Thank you.

Child Behaviour & Technology:

For parents interested in the changes to media and technology and how this may impact upon their own engagement in their children's development, there is an interesting scientific study looking into children's behaviour from a technology perspective.

Here is a brief summary and also an address to the full online report;

Abstract: Children, wired – for better and for worse Daphne Bavelier,1C. Shawn Green,2 and Matthew W. G. Dye3

Children today encounter and utilize technology constantly both at home and in school. Television, DVDs, video games, the internet, cell phones and PDAs – all now play a formative role in many children's development.

Given that the term "technology" subsumes a large variety of somewhat independent items, it may not be surprising that current research indicates causes for both optimism and for concern that depend upon the content of the technology, the context in which the technology immerses the user, and the developmental stage of the user.

Please feel free to drop into CSSC over the school holidays, we re-open on Monday 8th January and I'm here on Friday's if you would like to discuss this topic or any other issues you might like to talk through around parenting and your family.

What an awesome event to get together and watch the Show Me Shorts film festival screening of 'The Sampler'. The tickets sold out with over 100 people coming to the screening. Colville And Beyond (CAB) brought the festival to Colville for our community to be part of it. CAB also encouraged visitors to come to the screening (a viewer came from as far as Cambridge!) stay, dine, and experience what our community offers.

Colville And Beyond could not have put on this film screening without incredible community support.

A huge thanks to all who helped to set-up, donate gear, pack-down and promote the event, Steve Carson for his skills, and resources for hall set-up, Matt Sephton for his sound gear, Colville Store for being an amazing ticket outlet, Colville Social Service Collective staff for all your support, Colville Hall, and all of you who came along to enjoy the screening! Ngā mihi nui! Thanks also for the bonus opportunity to screen the brilliant talent of Luke McCauley with his film 'Footprints In The Shaddows' and Ella Osnat with her music video 'JV – Sitting On The Back Porch'.

CSSC Youth Group

We had a GREAT time sailing this term. A HUGE THANKYOU to all the awesome volunteers of the Colville Youth Sailing Academy, parent volunteers and to Fire Chief Justin Ward / Colville Rural Fire Force who helped with washing down the boats each week. Kapai for a fantastic community effort to provide a fun skill for our tamariki. Youth group will start again next year. Happy holidays from Elizabeth, Nathan and the CSSC Youth Group Team.

- Colville School & Colville Bay Preschool, for making it so easy for us to involve the children

- Moehau Environment Group, for helping us bring the Winter Lecture series to Colville
- Mark and Annie from Tukituki, for raising seedlings for us
- Shayne MacKenzie, for helping us move our huge pile of soil
- Terry Whitehouse and Kathi Parr for advice and help with pest management

Happy New Year,
 Here's hoping your Christmas time was enjoyable and that 2018 has started well for you.

First up a wee reminder to be "sun-smart" as you enjoy the warm holiday weather. Keep out of the sun during the hours of 10 to 4 and cover up well if you can't avoid it. Enjoy the sun during the earlier and later parts of the day – remember some sun is vital to replenish our Vitamin D.

Note that Dr Kate will be away for the week of the 15 to the 19th of January. Our nurses and some locum cover will be available during this time. If you need to see Dr Kate, be in early to book a time before or after that particular week. Also keep in mind that the practice is incredibly busy over the month of January due to the number of visitors to the area, so if you can schedule your appointment for February, that is even better.

Another reminder about repeat prescriptions. Our staff taking the request require: name, contact details, name of medication, and dose, method of collection, and the name of pharmacy if to be faxed. Please ensure you have these ready when you call. Alternatively you could email your request to clinic@colville.org.nz. A repeat prescription will cost you $10-00 and remember we require 48 hours notice. It can take some time to have these completed so best not to leave it till you have run out of medication.!

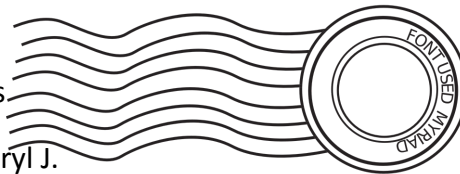

So until next time, keep safe and enjoy the summer days - the team at the Colville Health Clinic.

CALENDARS

2018 CALENDARS are available to purchase at CSSC, Colville Store, Colville Cafe, Hereford 'N' A Pickle for $25 as a fundraiser for the Colville Easter Festival. The calendars present photos of art work from our local artists.
