IN THE NORTHERN COROMANDEL

What have you been up to this Summer?

Thank you to those who shared with us a little bit of their Summer by sending some great shots!

We are still lucky to be in our wee bubble, living in a piece of paradise.

Seems like we've been enjoying summer so far!

Fishing, swimming (lots of swims!), camping, horse riding, boating, sharing precious moments with loved ones...

And a Happy New Year to you all!

Happy New Year Colville and Beyond! Let's make the best of 2022!

As I'm writing, it's pretty busy in town! Great news for our local businesses, and a bit of a shock for those who got used to the quietness of the past few months... Anyway, summer is not over yet, have fun!

We are delighted to welcome Sassy Acorn to the team at CSSC/Colville Junction! Sassy is the enthusiastic new Colville Harbour Care Nursery Manager. Sassy joined us in December 2021 and has been keeping a watchful eye over the nursery in this lovely sunny Jan.

As Beth said, she feels confident leaving with the nursery under Sassy's care.

Youth Group News

Merry Christmas and a very bright new 2022!

We saw out the end of 2021 in style, there was beautiful weather coming into the last part of 2021 and we all got to sail, with real sail boats, for Youth Group!

Spaced over four beautiful weekends, from October - December, kids of every age and from all over the peninsula joined in. In collaboration with the Colville Sailing Academy and the Youth Mentorship programme, Youth Group was fortunate to experience sailing in sailboats and learned valuable sailing skills. Ending the programme with a beautiful beach day and kai. Still deciding what to do next this coming year...

All suggestions are appreciated - colvilleyouthgroup@gmail.com

The Colville Project

“WE BOUGHT THE LAND!”

For those of you that haven't yet heard... The Colville Project Trust (TCPT) would like to announce that on January 20th 2022, the title of ownership for 89 Wharf Road, Colville, has been transferred to TCPT who hold this land on behalf of the communities of the Northern Coromandel Peninsula.

We would like to thank The Project's wider community and supporters who have astoundingly raised over $1 million collectively towards both the land purchase and the construction of the Wellbeing and Education Centre. What an incredible community of people we have!

In particular, we would like to thank Kay Ogilvie, whose very generous donation in November 2021, combined with the funds raised by our communities, enabled the recent purchase of this block of land to go ahead. Kathy Kalvin (former President and CEO of the United Nations Foundation), said that, “Giving is not just about making a donation. It is about making a difference.” Kay, the difference that your gift has made to The Colville Project is significant. It has ensured that The Colville Project has a base, a foundation upon which our community can determine its own future and create opportunity. Kay, for this, we are overwhelmingly grateful.

Margaret Mead, anthropologist, said “Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has.” To everyone who has contributed to The Colville Project so far, you are examples of citizens banding together to change (our) world.

Many opportunities to contribute to this innovative project still exist as we now enter a new phase. Check out the website (www.thecolvilleproject.nz), and keep watch in the Pānui on updates for how you can contribute, or, contact us directly thecolvilleproject@gmail.com.

Our focus is now on progressing the Wellbeing and Education Centre, and further donations can be made to: The Colville Project Trust #38-9020-0305267-01, reference: ‘donation’ with your name and phone number so we can provide you with a receipt (donations over $5 are tax deductible).

Kia Ora,

As announced in the December Pānui, we are going ahead with the Great Colville Re-Fashion Show (and the Great Colville Cake Competition) on Sunday 17th April, as the final event of the Colville Easter Festival. Lots more information to come, so keep an eye on our website and community Facebook pages.

We realise that with a change of date, some who bought tickets for 28 August might not be able to come on 17 April. And unfortunately, due to Covid restrictions on the size of events, we have had to accept that we must ask for a vaccine pass to participate or attend. That will affect some who have been very enthusiastic, and we apologise, and thank you for your understanding. Please be assured we will make this up to you at a later date, perhaps by holding that second show, as so many who missed out on tickets have asked for! We will, of course, offer refunds for tickets to any who cannot attend.

Please phone Emily on 021 0246 2028, or email colvilletrustmanager@gmail.com. All proceeds from our fundraising events and activities go to the construction of the new home of the Health Centre, The Colville Project's 'Wellbeing and Education Centre'.

At Colville School our Local Curriculum has a strong environmental focus. Learning flows beyond the classroom walls into the garden, through the stream, along to the foreshore and beyond! Learning in, and about, our local environment helps us to understand our story and learn about how we can be the Kaitiaki of this unique place in the Coromandel Peninsula.

It has been wonderful reflecting on all the learning in 2021 at Colville School. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the partnerships that have helped us to get to know our local stories including Moehau Environment Group, Colville Harbour Trust, Forest and Bird, The Colville Youth Group, Kiwi Can, The Rural Fire Service, St John Ambulance, Colville Junction and Garden to Table.

We look forward to building on these relationships and learning more about our story in 2022.

If you want to visit or find out more about the learning at Colville School, please contact me on susie.sumner@colville.school.nz or give us a call on 021 091 20434 or 07 866 6815.

Upper Coromandel Landcare Association (UCLA) Conservation Report January

Summer and the rahui mean a reprieve for all oxygen-breathing inhabitants of Moehau.

But another issue has raised its head and, this time, it does not concern pollution of our whenua, but rather the realm of Tangaroa.

Sow Crates of the Sea

Environmentalists throughout the world agree cage fish farming is the least sustainable form of feeding the world given at least one ton of wild caught fish are required to create one ton of farmed fish. Tens of thousands of strong fish are jammed into massive steel floating cages dumping waste feed, chemicals and faeces into the water and onto the seabed.

Pare Hauraki Kaimoana (subsidiary of Hauraki Maori Trust Board and Pare Hauraki Fishing Trust) have submitted an application for a 35-years resource consent to cage fish farm up to 8000 tons of kingi in the 240ha marine farm zone, 11 km from Waiheke and about 13 km from Coro.

Submissions close on January 28th. For anyone with any interest and energy - the document is hundreds of pages including appendices -, you can (thanks to UCLA demands) actually site the application at the TCDC offices in Coro.

It is, of course, a done deal given government and regional council enthusiastic support, with TCDC no doubt also supporting as they did last time round when the whole concept dissolved in 2010.

The promise of jobs (low paying processing) and activity generating GDP are the only carrots for TCDC as there is little chance of the business turning a profit. Clean Seas Australia—the largest kingfish farming company after Japan, suffered massive net losses of over A$14m and

A$32m in fiscal 2020 and 2021.

We ask where are all the well-paid Hauraki Gulf Forum members now? Where are the advocates for SeaChange? Where are those who want Tikapa Moana unencumbered with steel cage constructions with thousands of fish being fed wild caught sardines, mackerel—the fish that feed indigenous South Americans, plus antibiotics and chemicals and items such as chicken feathers, creating the possibility of a highly polluted benthic zone beneath the cages.

There are so many reasons to oppose this dirty industry, not limited to genetic contamination with escapees breeding with wild kingi, disease, nitrogen input, potential risks of entanglement of marine mammals, loss of feeding habitat, and it will be on the heads of ALL current politicians if Resource Consent conditions are not stringent, leaving not a stone unturned and, especially, not leaving rate payers to pay to clean up the mess as with the Tui Mine.

To quote (without irony, given who is applying) from the Seachange 2017 report, marine farms are a “potential barrier to mana whenua environmental and kaimoana restoration goals... Coastal hapū are regular witnesses to paru, rubbish resulting from farms, including lost floats and lines. But they are also concerned with pollution that is unseen, the accumulation of detritus and waste on the seabed.”

Submissions must demand strong conditions regarding stocking rates, feed, monitoring of consents (paid by the applicants NOT the ratepayers) with standards designed to minimize effects on the wider marine environment.

NEW MEG Activity pack for nature kids

This summer look out for MEGs new activity packs with plenty of activities to keep kids busy and happy during the holidays. Packed full of nature themed activities, for junior conservationists, they will be available at Waikawau camp shop, the information centre in Coromandel town, Colville store or by emailing MEG, or calling 021 542 695.

Kiwi numbers going strong

The annual kiwi listening survey was completed earlier this year and the results are great news for our Coromandel kiwi. The survey is taken across multiple sites around the peninsula including Waikawau, Tuatēawa, Te Whanahou, Pollocks, Karuna Falls, Kennedy Bay, Little Bay and Port Charles.

The Moehau Environment Group Kiwi Sanctuary

Kiwi counts help build a picture of kiwi numbers in an area and involve listening for the total number of kiwi calls for a two hour period over 4 nights. The survey results continued to show a long term increase in total kiwi numbers and predict approximately 65 kiwis in the area when looking at the average increase over time. Keep up the great work everyone!

PLBs for MEG trappers

MEG was very fortunate to receive a bequest from the estate of Howard Friend who was a long time supporter of MEGs conservation work. Among other things, the bequest has allowed MEG to purchase enough personal locator beacons (PLB) for every MEG trapper to have one to carry while they are completing their trapping lines. We appreciate all of the efforts the MEG team puts in across terrain that is not always ‘easy’, and we are very grateful to have been able to issue these devices to ensure their safety in te ngahere.

Kiwi Aversion Training (KAT) for mans best friend

Dogs are mans best friend but even a well trained dog can harm a kiwi. KAT training is scheduled for 22nd January 2022 at Waikawau Bay. Bookings can be made via the Kauaeranga Visitor Centre on 07 867 9080.
